

Job Title The Raymond and Eleanor Smiley Chair in Business Ethics

Rank Recruiting at Multiple Levels

Tenure Information Tenure Track

The Boler School's core strength is developing outstanding leaders who have confidence, integrity and a global vision. This is accomplished within a rigorous and challenging learning environment. One of the distinguishing characteristics of the Boler School is the sense of community between students and faculty, and the alumni base in the business community is exceptionally strong and very supportive of the University.

Summary The Chair holder will teach management and leadership courses with a focus on business ethics at the undergraduate and graduate levels and bring together accomplished business and not-for-profit professionals, faculty and students to engage in conversations related to business and ethics. In addition, the Chair holder will organize conferences and symposia to assist business leaders, students and faculty gain special insight into the challenges of ethical and moral leadership in today's business world. He or she will be an active scholar and a participant in international business ethics organizations. The Chair holder's teaching and research should help elevate John Carroll University's Boler School of Business to be known as a scholarly center of excellence in the United States, and would be expected to inspire John Carroll students to think very differently about the future of business and how to resolve ethical, moral and social problems and challenges that cut across international and cultural boundaries.

Candidates at the associate level will be considered for appointment at the endowed Professor level while candidates at the rank of Professor will be appointed at the endowed Chair level.

Required Qualifications John Carroll University requires all employees to be Fully Vaccinated from COVID-19 and to present proof of full vaccination as a condition of employment with the University. Individuals who are offered and accept positions at the University may seek medical and non-medical exemptions from the Vaccination Requirements.

Preferred Qualifications Teaching and research in leadership or management preferred.

Normal Working Hours and Conditions This position works in-person from our campus in University Heights, Ohio.

About John Carroll University John Carroll University is a private, coeducational, Jesuit Catholic university, founded in 1886, dedicated to developing women and men with the knowledge and character to lead and to serve. The University is located in University Heights, Ohio, an attractive residential suburb 10 miles east of downtown Cleveland. Academically, the University consists of the College of Arts and Sciences and the Boler College of Business, which both include graduate programs. The University offers 70 Academic Programs in the arts, social sciences, natural sciences, and business at the undergraduate level, and in select areas at the master's level.

The University enrolls approximately 3,000 undergraduate students and 500 graduate students and has a student-to-faculty ratio of 13:1. John Carroll University is one of 27 Jesuit universities in the United States and has been listed in U.S. News & World Report magazine's top 10 rankings of Midwest regional universities for more than 30 consecutive years.

Posting Detail Information

Posting Number F106P

Open Date

Close Date

Open Until Filled Yes. We will start reviewing and interviewing applicants by November 11, 2022

Qualified individuals should complete an application to be considered which will also include:

Special Instructions to Applicants

A cover letter that addresses your background and experience; your interest in working in a liberal arts environment informed by a Jesuit Catholic mission; and the ways that you've contributed to diversity, equity, and inclusion in prior professional settings;
Curriculum Vitae;
teaching statement;
research statement;
names and contact information for three references.

EEO Statement

John Carroll University is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity Employer. The University is committed to diversity in the workplace and strongly encourages applications from women and minorities, veterans and individuals with disabilities.